DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

STATE TREASURER,

EDMUND A. BIGLER,

Clearfield.

The election will be held on the 5th of November, 1889.

If you want an honest and economical management of the public moneys, vote for Edmund A. Bigler for State Treasurer.

Tuesday, November 5, is election day. Don't let the fact that we have no county ticket cause you to lose interest in the election. It is highly important to have an honest and capable State Treasurer. Go to the polls and vote, and see that your neighbor does likewise.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

TEN PLANKS IN WHICH ARE FORMULATED THE PARTY'S DOCTRINE.

The following is the platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention:

The Democracy of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, declare:

"First. That all powers not expressly granted to the General Government are withheld, and a sacred observance of the rule of construction contained in the tenth amendment to the Constitution itself is essential to the preservation of the principles of home rule and of pure, honest and economical government, to the end that labor may not be robbed of the bread it has earned.

"Second. We applaud the action of President Cleveland and our Democratic representatives in Congress looking to tariff tax reform, and we reaffirm the declaration of principles made by the Democracy of the Union at St. Louis in 1888, especially that demanding a revision and reduction of tariff taxes for the relief at once of American labor, American industries and American tax-payers, by the repeal of such tariff taxes as now invite and protect monopoly—a greed that lessens production, lessens employment of labor, decreases wages and increases cost to consumers, and by the admission of raw material free of duty in all cases where it will enlarge our product, multiply our markets and increase demand for labor.

"Third. We regard trusts, in whatever form organized, as the result of the existing monopoly tariff, and we demand the repeal of such tariff taxes as enable them to control domestic production, by unlawful combination, and to extort from the people exhorbitant prices for their products.

"Fourth. We accept the decision of the people of Pennsylvania rendered by the ballot on the prohibitory amendment as a declaration in favor of a reasonable, just and effective regulation of the traffic in ardent spirits. We hold that the agreement of the Republican party, through its Representatives in the Legislature, to the proposed prohibitory amendment to the Constitution, and its defeat at the polls in spite of the Republican majority of 80,000 votes, are facts that establish beyond doubt the hypocrisy of the Republican leaders in their treatment of the question of prohibition.

"Fifth. We hold the Republican party responsible for the failure—a failure wilfully and corruptly incurred—to enforce by 'appropriate legislation' the sixteenth and seventeenth articles of the Constitution, designed to protect the land and labor, the people and industries of this Commonwealth.

"Sixth. We hold the Republican party responsible for the failure to pass any law for the relief of the manual laborers of the State of Pennsylvania, and we recommend the enactment of such laws as will give equal protection and equal opportunities in every branch of industry to all citizens, irrespective of race, religion or nativity. We also hold the Republican party responsible for the failure of the Legislature to consider favorably the petition of the workingmen and farmers of this State for the equalization of the burdens of taxation and for relief from the exactions of monopoly.

"Seventh. We hold the Republican party responsible for the notorious corruptions which have for many years prevailed in the management of the State Treasury, for the system of depositing loans without interest, enriching favorites of the ring by the use of the public money and for the flagrant violation of law by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and we pledge the faith of the Democratic party that the candidate this day nominated will, if elected, reform these wrongs.

"Eighth. We favor the Australian ballot system as adapted to meet the requirements of our Constitution and the special wants of our people, in order to secure the freedom and purity of elections menaced by the combined power of monopoly and the corruption of the Republican rings and bosses.

"Ninth. That the sufferers by the recent floods have our sincere sympathy, and that while we deprecate and condemn the management on the part of the State authorities by which relief to our sorely-afflicted fellow citizens has been unnecessarily delayed, we urge our representatives in the Legislature to take such constitutional action as will give substantial relief to the stricken communities.

"Tenth. While we favor a liberal system of pensions to such veterans of the late war as have been honorably discharged, and who from wounds or other physical infirmities have been rendered unfit for manual or other labor, we deem it unjust to that large class of those faithful soldiers of the Union who take a just pride in the heroic achivements of their comrades in arms that there should be added to the pension roll the names of any who are not qualified therefor by reason of honorable and faithful service in the line of duty."

LABOR REFORM.

The mechanics, mill-hands, miners, laborers,—in fact, the wage-earners of the State, represented at Harrisburg last winter by a special committee of the Knights of Labor, asked the Legislature to pass a number of bills. From the report of that committee, lately distributed privately to the various labor societies of the State, we can best give an idea of what these bills were, and what the evils are that they were intended to remedy, and what the Republican Legislature, under the guidance of Speaker Boyer, did with these bills in answer to the appeals of the workingmen.

The committee say:—

"Fearing the members of the House and Senate were not fully informed as to the nature, number and character of our bills, the following circular was sent by mail to each and every member of both houses:

"We desire to call your personal attention to the following measures now pending in General Assembly, and ask for your support and influence in securing their enactment:

House Bill No. 91—Collins, amending "Semi-Monthly Pay Law."

House Bill No. 158—Caffrey, "Dockage Bill."

House Bill No. 92—"Store Bill."

Senate Bill No.—Hines, "Regulating Liability of Employers of Workmen, to make compensation for injuries, &c."

Senate No. 131—"Regulating Employment of Women and Children, providing Inspectors, &c."

House Bill No. 276—"Providing for Examination of Miners in Anthracite Regions, &c."

Also Bills which will be introduced to amend the "Bituminous Checkweighman and Mine Ventilation laws." "To regulate licensing of Stationary Engineers, &c." An act "To make Election Days Legal Holidays." An act to regulate elections according to the Australian System. An act giving Lumbermen Lien on Cut Timber; and an act against "Convict Labor."

H. McGARDEY,
WM. H LEWIS,
C. J. ANDREWS,
Committee.

Then follows a history of the illfortunes of these bills, of which the following is a condensed report:

House Bill No. 91. (Semi-monthly Pay Bill.) In the House: first reading January 25; second reading February 21; third reading April 3, when it passed the House by a vote of 162 ayes to 9 nays.

In the Senate: committed to Judiciary General Committee April 4, 1889; reported negatively April 25.

House Bill No. 92. (Company Stores.) In the House: first reading January 25; second reading February 21, and third reading April 3, when it passed the House by a vote of 163 ayes to 3 nays.

In the Senate: committed to Judiciary General Committee April 4, 1889; reported negatively April 25, 1889.

Senate Bill No. 131. House Bill No. 717. (Known as the Factory Inspection Bill.) In the Senate: first reading February 26; second reading February 28; final passage in Senate, March 13 by a unanimous vote.

In the House: first reading March 25; second reading April 18; final passage in the House, May 7, by a vote of 109 to 18.

No appropriation was made for the payment of the inspectors, and, in consequence, no benefits have been derived from the act to date.

House Bill No. 158. Senate Bill 397. (Dockage Bill.) In the House: first reading March 28; third reading April 23, when bill passed the House by a unanimous vote.

In the Senate: defeated on third reading, May 2, 1889.

House Bill No. 275. (An act to provide for the examination of Miners, &c.) In the House: passed finally April 22, by a vote of 144 to 5. Speaker Boyer absent and not voting.

In the Senate: passed finally May 2.

Senate Bill No. 237. House Bill 844. (Employers' Liability Bill.) In the Senate: first reading April 2; second reading April 9; third reading April 10, when bill passed Senate by a vote of 28 to 4.

In the House: first reading April 19; second reading May 6; third reading May 8, when bill was defeated by a vote of 85 ayes to 38 nays, less than a majority having voted in the affirmative.

Concerning this bill the Committe say:

"The committee feel the loss of this bill very much from the fact that it was with great difficulty we succeeded in getting it on the Senate calendar, where it passed third reading and final passage with a creditable vote, and from the kind manner the members of the House had so far treated us, no serious opposition was expected, but we were disappointed.

"This bill, more than any other of the bills entrusted to the committee, presented an opportunity to those members who so often declared their allegiance and friendship for the working classes of this State to place themselves on record as such by supporting and voting for the measure, inasmuch as the bill was more general and far reaching in its provisions, than any other. There was not a shadow of class or special legislation in its provisions, but was intended as a benefit to all the working classes of the State, no matter where or how employed."

The report of the Committee concludes as follows:

"The other bills mentioned in the circular were not endorsed by the convention as special bills, but being in the interest of labor, we gave them all the attention possible. The Bill to 'Regulate the Licensing of Stationary Engineers' was negatived in committee, and did not come before the body for discussion. 'An act to make Election Days Legal Holidays' met the same fate, as did also the 'Convict Labor Bill.' The member from Potter county refused to introduce the bill giving 'Lumbermen Lien on Cut Timber'

"The act to regulate elections according to the Australian system of voting came before the Judiciary General Committee of both House and Senate, and it was ably supported on both occasions by a delegation from the Ballot Reform Association, of Philadelphia, who called upon this committee and requested their presence at the meetings. This committee attended and were ready, if called upon, to support the bill. The Hon. Wayne McVeagh, of Philadelphia, on behalf of the association, made an able and eloquent address in favor of the bill, as did other members of the association.

"Mr. Baker moved to place the bill on this calendar as a special order. The yeas and nays were called, and the motion defeated by a large majority.

"In conclusion, let us say that, although not as successful as we might, nor indeed as we expected to be, in securing legislation for the working classes of the State, we issue this report with a clear conscience, that we did all in our power as a committee to further the passage of the bills intrusted to us by the convention, and hope that each and every member is satisfied with this account of our stewardship. We advise the continuance of legislative committees at each session of the Legislature. Wishing the next committee better success, with kind regards, we beg to remain.

Yours fraternally,

H. M. McGARVEY, Chairman.

GEN. J. F HARTRANFT DEAD.

Major General John F. Hartranft, ex governor of Pennsylvania, died at his home in Norristown, on Thursday the 17th inst. of pneumonia. Gov. Beaver has issued a proclamation, in which he says:

"For more than a quarter of a century, Gen. Hartranft has filled a a large place in the activities of his generation which is already recognized as forming one of the most important epochs in the history of our country.

Born December 16, 1730, graduated at Union college, naturally inclined to a military life and trained to some extent in voluntary military organizations, he was ready in the full vigor of educated young manhood to fill with conspicuous ability the prominent place to which he was called from the ordinary pursuits of a retired life by the proclamation of the president of the United States, April 15, 1861. In the eventful years which followed his response to the call of the president for men to enforce the laws, he occupied successively the positions of colonel of the Fourth regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers during what is known as the Three months service, and as a colonel of the Fifty-first regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, brigadier-general of United States volunteers and brevet major-general of United States volunteers respectively during the remainder of the war of the rebellion.

The calm courage, the quiet devotion, intrepid zeal and the lofty patriotism which characterised his military service and won for him the success which crowned his efforts are known and appreciated by all who have given heed to the history of the stirring times during which this service was rendered.

The same year in which he retired from the military service of the United States he was called by the people of this commonwealth to serve them in an important civil position, and from the time of his election in 1865 down to the present as auditor general, governor and major general of the National Guard, he has almost without interruption rendered efficient and distinguished services to his native state. To recount these services would be to repeat in a large measure the history of the Commonwealth during these years. They are well known and will be long and gratefully remembered."

The funeral took place at Norristown on Monday, and was largely attended, the National Guard of which the General was commander taking part.

Just Married.

How loving they are; this is always a sure sign. After the first year sometimes it don't hold good. When Charles comes home to you grouty and cross, snapping and snarling, unable to relish the nice dinner you cooked, and feels as if there was a ton of pig iron in his stomach, he is troubled with dyspepsia, and Sulphur Bitters is the only medicine that will cure him.

A Discreditable Appointment.

The selection of Green B. Raum as Pension Commissioner to succeed Tanner is one of the few very discreditable appointments of the present administration. After the blistering disgrace of Tannerism, every consideration of public policy dictated the selection of a new Pension Commissioner possessing not only eminent ability and integrity, but the cleanest possible record to qualify him for the delicate and responsible duties of the office.

Green B. Raum is no such man. He comes with the offensive flavor of the worst demoralization of the Grant reign, under which he was called to the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and in which position he was the backbone of the Whiskyring and a blatent peripatetic campaigner. He entered every important State political contest in person, flooded the country with political bulletins over his signature, and summoned his large internal revenue force to the most reckless and desperate partisan services.

How or why President Harrison was persuaded to call a man with such an unsavory official record to the one position that now requires the most commendable qualities to commandpublic confidence, will be difficult to explain to intelligent and fairminded people of every party. Surely some honored soldier with unblemished record could have been found to restore law, order and confidence in the utterly demoralized Pension Office, and the selection of Raum, with his open, unconcealed purpose to make partisan duties paramount in every official trust under his control, will grate harshly upon the aroused public sentiment that so clearly demands obedience to law and the subordination of politics in the administration of the Pension Office.

The President can hardly hope to escape the keenest regrets for the appointment of Mr. Raum. Judged by his avowed and ostentatious abuse of public position in the past, his selection will be accepted as meaning that the Pension Department is to be a mere political sagacity. It is a grave blunder; not only a blunder for the President, but a more serious blunder because of the inevitable and disastrous issue it must precipitate over dishonest and fraudulent pensions. The Pension Office is the last place where the dregs of old whisky ring and official machine politics should be enthroned and there will be next to universal popular distrust in the Pension Department under the new Commissioner.

A gang of grocery agents, claiming to hail from a lively Western city, have been canvassing this region for orders for family supplies, says the Wellsboro Agitator. One countryman brought an itemized bill of his purchase from one of these fellows to town last Saturday and showed it to a local grocer. The items amounted to $16, and the man felt quite crestfallen when the dealer told him that he could duplicate the bill for $8.

The High School building is approaching completion, and the wood work in some of the lower rooms will soon be done, though there still remains considerable to do before it will be ready for occupancy. The heating apparatus is all in, consisting of three double furnaces, and A. W. Fry has charge of them. The High School is an ornament to the town, and reflects credit on the taste and judgment of the School Board.

Whenever any dangerous contagious diseases exist in a community, every possible precaution should be taken to prevent their spread. People who have no special business at an infected house should not go there out of idle curiosity, and the inmates of such a house should avoid putting themselves in contact with anyone except those with whom it is necessary to communicate. Many disastrous epidemics have been the result of gross carelessness.

The pretty little town of Kane, on the summit of the Alleghany Mountains, is becoming famous for the manufacture of clothes pins. There are already three factories engaged in turning out these useful articles, and it is asserted by a McKean county exchange that in a few weeks twenty miles of clothes pins will be manufactured daily. At this rate, it would seem, that in a few months enough pins will be manufactured to supply every household in the State with abundance, but the wastage is so great that there is a constant demand for new pins.

Theo. Thomas will include Wilkes-Barre in his coming tour. The date set is Monday, November 4th. Two grand concerts will be given, one in the afternoon and one at night. The programme has not yet been announced. It has been left by Mr. Thomas to the decision of the Wilkes-Barre audience. Of all the artists of his time he alone stands as the representative of American music. He is a thorough American in everything, and as such, not less than because of his unsurpassed ability, the public delights to honor him.

The law in relation to the rights of bicycles, tricycles, etc., passed the 23d of April, 1889, is as follows: That bicycles, tricycles and all vehicles propelled by hand or foot, and all persons by whom bicycles, tricycles and such other vehicles are used ridden and propelled upon the highways of this State, shall be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same restrictions, in the use thereof, as are prescribed by law in the cases of persons using carriages drawn by horses. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

U. P. & H. G. McHenry, proprietors of the Iola mill, always endeavor to supply their customers with the best flour manufactured in this region. With this end in view they have put in one of Fullmer's new machines for separating buckwheat from gravel, which is always present and is difficult to separate. This is a machine of recent invention, only three are in operation. Wilson Bogert did the work, which is pronounced a good job, and is giving excellent satisfaction. The appearance of the flour is greatly improved by this process, the quality is far better, and besides, we know that we are not eating gravel stone cakes. An inspection of the process and a trial of the flour will convince anyone of the superiority of flour manufactured by this process.—Milleille Tablet.

The following letters are held at Bloomsburg, Pa., post-office, and will be sent to the dead letter office, November, 5 1889:

Persons calling for these letters please say, they were advertised Oct. 15, 1889.

A. B. CATHCART, P. M.

The public school law now in force in this State provides that use of profane language by any pupil shall constitute good cause for exoulsion from schools; also that anyone who shall cut, deface or otherwise injure school houses, fences or outbuildings thereof are liable to suspension and punishment, and the parents of such pupils shall be liable for damages for the amount of injury on complaint by the teacher, the amount to be determined by the directors and collected by the court. The school house is a good place to enforce the laws of the State. It is but one step from the school master to the court.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Wilson drove over to the Washingtonville fair last week Thursday, and at noon Mr. Wilson drove to a quiet spot so that he could feed his horse, while he and his wife were eating their dinner. As the animal is a gentle one he slipped the bit out of its mouth so that it could eat, but he had no sooner done this than the horse gave a spring and started. Mr. Wilson held on to her nose as long as he could, but she threw him and the buggy went over him, bruising him considerably. Mrs. Wilson was in the buggy, which coming in contact with a post, was overturned, and she was thrown out and quite seriously injured. They were able to come home, and both of them are improving.

BEAUTIES OF BLOOMSBURG.

A correspondent signing his name "R. N" has written a letter from Bloomsburg to the Hagerstown, Md., Evening Globe, and as it is well to see ourselves as others see us, some extracts from the letter are printed below:

"The name of this place was all we knew about it when we chose it for the scene of our summer pleasures. All of our intuitions were verified. In the vicinity it is alluded to simply as Bloom, and the name is quite appropriate. It is as though the flat had gone forth—Bloom!—and the town had immediately fulfilled its destiny. A love of flowers, trees and shrubbery is a distinguishing characteristic of its people. There is no home so humble that it cannot boast of a brilliant flower bed. The streets are wide and well shaded, principally by soft maples. Many of the houses are beautified by graceful vines. On several streets the houses set back and have both front and side lawns. There is considerable driving here and one may drive every day without cause to complain of monotonous scenery, as there are fifty drives, each of which is delightful.

The people have an eye to picturesque effect, if we may judge by the number of children who are here seen attired in bright red dresses or with pretty red hats, playing on the lawn. So pleasing is a gay bit of red with vivid green background that at one house where there were no children to set off the shrubbery an esthetic laundress hit upon the happy expedient of hanging a red flannel shirt on an evergreen. This is a pretty town but the general appearance is distinctively Pennsylvania. Most of the residences have one or more piazzas. The favorite style of architecture is what might be called dumb-bell ornamentation. This produces a novel rather than a pleasing effect.

The population numbers five thousand. A busy population it is, with a large silk mill, woolen mill, desk factory and iron furnaces to keep the people employed. A large carpet factory is in process of erection. The State Normal school is located here, and has a fine location. A new jail commands the admiration of visitors, and the old jail has been torn down to give a site for an immense public school building, which is nearly completed.

This should be a paradise for fashionable ladies, as there are sixty resident dressmakers.

Let me comfort our housekeepers with the information that it is not in Maryland only that domestics cause anxiety. At our first meal a cup of tea was served each one at the table. We asked the waiter to have coffee for us in future. "Certainly," was the reply. "We can give you what you prefer if you give your order in time. I am glad you are willing to wait till next meal, for our cook "kicks" if she is asked to make a change after you set up to the table." A singular noise heard in the basement we attributed to the agency of the kicking cook.

In the post-office a placard sets forth that "no lounging or smoking is allowed in this post-office."

The W. C. T. U. have opened a reading room, and a lunch room where hot coffee may be procured at all hours. The Bloomsburg Library Association aided the W. C. T. U. in founding a very good library. Books may be taken out by anyone, even by guests at the hotels, on payment of one penny per day, and kept for two weeks if desired.

The country surrounding Bloomsburg is mountainous and well watered. The drive over Montour Ridge is very fine, and the drives along Big Fishing Creek, Little Fishing Creek and large Fishing Creek are picturesque all the way. A favorite drive is to the town of Catawissa, which lies on the south bank of the Susquehanna. The roadway is along the right bank. Opposite the little town is the profile on the rocks overhanging the drive. It looks like the head of a gigantic Indian. The head is large and well proportioned, the eye full and earnest, the nose, lips and chin are all well defined. One could easily imagine a grim Indian warrior looking out over a vast stretch of country. This profile I consider as perfect as any I saw in the White Mountains."

Climate for Consumptives.

The several climates of Florida, Colorado and California have each been much prescribed for sufferers from lung disease, yet thousands of the natives in those states die of this fatal malady. A far more reliable remedy is to be had in every drug store in the land, and one that can be used at home; a remedy which is sold, by druggists, under the manufacturers' positive guarantee that, if taken in time and given a fair trial, it will effect a cure, or money paid for it will be promptly returned. We refer to that world-famed remedy for consumption (or lung-scrofula) known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the only remedy for this terrible disease possessed of such superior curative properties as to warrant its manufacturers in selling it under a guarantee.

Don't hawk, and blow, and spit, but use Dr. Sage's Remedy. Of druggists.

An Appalling Scene at Afton.

On last Friday morning while Elizabeth, wife of Jessie Dietrich of Afton, was adding fuel to the fire of the cook stove, the flame striking up suddenly caught her sleeve, and she, not having the presence of mind that might have led her to smother it, and, being greatly frightened, ran out into the open air, which almost instantly fanned the flame over her whole person, burning all the clothes from her body, before any assistance could reach her. From her knees upward her whole body was so badly burned that medical aid could be of no avail. There being more or less congestion of the lungs, occasioned by the severe shock, she died on Saturday morning, and the funeral services were held on Monday, the remains being borne to the Afton Cemetery.

Blanket Your Horse.

It is money in your pocket to keep your horse blanketed. The warmth must be kept up, and if the horse is not blanketed he will eat that much more to keep warm, and a blanket will save more than its price in feed. Your horse, if blanketed, will live longer, work harder and his smooth, glossy coat will make him look $50 better than if he was not blanketed.

When buying blankets it is cheaper to get good ones which will wear. Many blankets are made merely to sell, and it is the poorest kind of economy to buy one of these poor blankets because it is a few cents cheaper.

The 5-A manufacturers of horse blankets believe in making strong goods which will wear, and the 5-A blankets which are being advertised in our columns are the strongest blanket made. You should ask to see the four styles named in the advertisements as they are the cheapest. There are thirty other 5-A styles in better qualities.

The policy of the 5-A firm in using our columns to let the people know how to get strong blankets is a wise one. People appreciate a good thing when they know of it and, like all live houses who have a good thing to sell the 5-A manufacturers know that the newspaper columns are the best methods of reaching the people.

A LARGE SOCIAL GATHERING.

Last Saturday as Jap Shultz was pursuing the even tenor of his way, working for Judge Krickbaum, a large number of invited guests wended their way to his house by foot and vehicle from far and near until seventy completed the number. At the proper time Jap was informed that he had company and in his eagerness to welcome his guests he reached home about noon. A more surprised person is seldom seen than he was when he entered the apartment where there was no more standing room. Mrs. Krickbaum made many feints to deceive him and succeeded too and "bejocks" reached his home before he did and cheered him as he came in. A sumptuous repast was served to which all did ample justice and in which all seemed to have an equal interest. Jap was the recipient of many congratulations and handsome presents—the occasion being intended for a birthday party, but served equally as well for a family reunion as both his parents and all his brothers and sisters with their families were there including several of his wife's brothers and sisters. Many friends more remotely related were also present. This circumstance in family life is but a drop in pleasure's cup and a picture enshrined in love and "hung upon memory's wall" that in after life will pass among the reminiscenses as the years glide by bearing many of those then present beyond the shores of time and social gatherings. "But such is life." Enjoy it while we may because "we will pass this way but only this once." This party was deferred one week on account of the dangerous sickness of their youngest child which was also Japs birthday.

Rev. Aaron Noll of Hazelton filled Rev. Houtz's pulpit last Sunday at St. James. He is a young man and gifted in oratory.

Butter varies in price. The hucksters pay 19 to 20 cts and the merchants 22 cts per lb.

In this our day of political economy and prosperity the farmers will soon fully realize that we have protection and high tariff on merchandise and free trade on produce. And "Oh! lah' how de money comes in."

Corn is a short crop in our locality.

Several more young chaps here about are in search of a mother-in law. They will find her too.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The Large Bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

Half-dollar Dress Goods! Have you any notion what heaps and heaps of them we have in Fall and Winter weights? Better stuffs than you've been used to seeing at 50c—finer qualities, choicer styles, richer colorings. Take the serges:

ombre stripes, cluster stripes, Pekin stripes, hair-line stripes, jasper stripes, pin stripes, graduated stripes and half as many more. 37 to 38 inches wide. Fifteen colors of each styles.

Then the Bordered Serges; six or eight styles, each in more than a dozen shades.

Plain Cassimere Serges; all wool, Weight, colors, finish, right.

In cloths a myriad;

Plaids, broken, indistinct, clear cut—four words to cover a hundred peculiarities. Stripes, just as many and just as pretty in their way.

Cheviots, tough, sturdy, 54-inch stuffs, with white hair-line or cluster stripes on grounds of brown, black, blue, green, garnet.

Habit cloths, 50 inches wide, plain and mixed.

And that Napkin, 23 inches square, unfinished, only two sides to hem, at $1.10 a dozen. As well worth $1.50 as any Napkin ever had.

Only a Country Maiden.

HOW AN AUSTRALIAN GIRL SAT ON AN ENGLISH DUDE.

It was on a Gippsland train. In a second-class carriage sat a pretty country damsel with a milk-and-rose complexion and a set of teeth as pure as the whitewashed tombstone in a country churchyard, and along with her was her weather-beaten and stalwart ma. A lean, consumptive dude, newly out from "home," occupied the opposite seat and worried her with remarks. He said that—haw—he was surprised at the English aspect of things—the girls, don't you know—almost as beautiful as anything in the old country—really, now— haw aw dontyerknow—so English, yersee; but for a long time there was no reply. He offered the same remark six times before he succeeded in attracting the young lady's attention, and then he was just beginning his observation for the seventh and last time: "The girls, dontyersee—" when she spoke. "Ma," she said in a plaintive voice, "why don't they put it in the cattle-truck along with its mother!" That was all. It left at the next station.—New Zealand Gazette.

A SEVERE TEST.

When a manufacturer, from years of observation, has so completely satisfied himself of the universal satisfaction given by his products, that he feels fully warrented in selling them under a cerificate of guarrantee, it is very natural to believe that such a producer has implicit confidence in the merits of his goods, and that, too, not without good reason. Such confidence is possessd by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., in Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines, and hence his "Favorite Prescription,, is sold by druggists, as no other medicine for similar purposes ever was, under a positive guarantee, that it will in every case give satisfaction,or money paid for it will be refunded. It cures all those distressing and delicate ailments and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is not necessary to enumerate the long catalogue of derangemeuts, both functional and orgnnic, of the female system which this marvelous remedy overcomes. They are,alas! but too well-known to most females who have attained womanhood, to need more than a hint to make them plain to their understandiug.

The Ocean's Greatest Depth.

The greatest known depth of the sea is in the South Atlantic Ocean, midway between the Island of Tristand'Acunha and the mouth of the Rio de la Plata. The bottom was there reached at the depth of 40,236 feet or 8½ miles exceeding by more than 16,000 feet the highest peak of Mount Everest,the loftiest mountain in the world. In the North Atlantic Ocean, south of Newfoundland, soundings have been made to a depth of 4,580 fathoms, or 27,480 feet, while depths equaling 34,000 feet or 6½ miles, are reported south of the Bermuda Islands. The average depth of the Pacific Ocean between Japan, and California is a little over 2,000 fathoms; between Chili and the Sandwhich Islands, 2,500 fathoms, and between Chili and New Zealand, 1,500 fathoms. The average depth of all the oceans is from 2,000 to 2,500 fathoms.

or overeating, or the partaking of too rich and indigestible food, is a common cause of discomfort and suffering. To immediately relieve the stomach and bowels from such overloading, a full dose of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets is the best remedy. They operate gently, yet thoroughly and without griping, nausea, or other unpleasant effects.

If the too free indulgence in such intemperate eating has deranged digestion, causing dyspepsia and biliousness, attended with a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in mouth in the morning, on arising, drowsiness after meals, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity and hypochondria—then you need to follow up the use of the "Pellets" with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to tone up the stomach, invigorate the liver, and set all the processes of digestion at work. While curing indigestion, it purifies the blood, cleansing the system from all humors and blood-poisons—no matter of what name or nature, or from what cause arising. There is nothing similar to it in composition or approaching it in results. Therefore, don't be duped and induced to take some substitute, said to be "just as good," that the dealer may make a larger profit.

The Musk of Commerce.

HOW THE POWERFUL PERFUME IS OBTAINED AND ADULTERATED.

Most people take it for granted that because musk is sold in what is called a pod, therefore it is a vegetable product. But the truth is that it is entirely an animal product, being a substance found in a two or three-inch sac in the body of the little-musk deer of Asia. The sac, when tied up and dried, goes by the name of a pod among the hunters who bring it into market. Probably there are few things subject to such adulteration, as one part of pure musk will scent thousands of parts of some other powder mingled with it, and as the pods sell from $15 to $20 apiece the adulteration has its profit.

It is indeed so pungent that when just fresh it has been known to produce violent bleeding at the nose, and many people are so susceptible to it as to have sad headaches brought about by contact with the pure article, and while a suspicion of it is very agreeable to many persons, one atom too much becomes offensive. as the case is with patchouli and many other odorous substances. It was formerly largely used in therapeutics, especially in the Orient, having become disused as much from the difficulty of obtaining it in a pure state as from anything else, and it is now seldom given except in hysteria and hiccough. —Brooklyn Standard-Union.

Destitution in Dakota.

ONE HUNDRED FAMILIES ON THE VERGE OF STARVATION.

Owing to the extreme drought there was a failure of crops in Ramsey county, Dakota, and in consequence over one hundred families reported to be without any means of subsistence during the coming winter. There have been three successive failures of the crops and over a hundred families are not only on the verge of starvation but without sufficient clothing to protect them from the weather even at this season.

Dozens of men, women and children are without shoes or stockings, and many of the little ones have no covering than an ordinary gunnysack, with holes for head and arms. For weeks the people have been subsisting upon roots or herbs until their supplies are wholly exhausted. Some flour has been sent in from the outside, but not enough to give each of the families a supply for even one batch of bread. Unless relief is received very soon many must die of hunger

Grapes and Grape Juice.

The art of Preserving Grape Juice without fermentation and the art of fermenting the Oporto Grape into wine in this country has been brought to a greater degree of perfection by Mr. Alfred Speer, of New Jersey, than by any other person. The Claret and Burgundy are very popular as dinner wine and the Port Unfermented Juice as evening wines as well as for the communion table and for invalids. For sale by druggists.

As one result of the falling of part of all the citidel rock at Quebec, killing fifty men, women and children, it is said that it will take a month to make a roadway through the debris which now blocks Champlain street, the one avenue of communication east and west below the heights.

CATARRH,

Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever.

A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.

An Attack of Gravel.

The Terrible Suffering of a Woman at 60.—How She was Happily Cured.

There is nothing I now enjoy that I do not owe to having used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. My troubles began in my kidneys and from which I never expected to recover. First there were pains in my back, I was feverish, with no appetite and could not sleep, I was compelled to use a cane, and finally got so weak that I could not stand alone. The distress in my back was terrible. I was burning up with a fever or constantly shivering as if cold. My physicians said which was alarming information. To add to my affliction after I had been ill about two years, I had a bad attack of Gravel. When this made its appearance my physician gave up my case, and I resigned myself to die. I had four doctors attend me, the best in the country, but I constantly grew worse. Six years ago last June, how well I remember the time! I saw Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy advertised in our paper. After using one bottle I threw away my cane and went to New York on a visit, and three bottles cured me. I have never had a return of Gravel, nor of the pains or weakness in the back, and though I am over sixty years of age I am as I was in my prime. I do all my own work, and rarely know what it is to be tired. I keep the medicine in the house and give it to my children, and recommend it whenever I can. What physicians and all of the various remedies I had taken could not do Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy did—it stayed the disease, and made me a strong, vigorous woman.

I HAD BRIGHT'S DISEASE,

Now Vigorous and Strong

"That Settles It."

HOW A HOTEL CLERK TOOK FANNY DAVENPORT'S REFUSAL.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch.

Tuesday night just as the curtain went up on the second scene of "Hamlet," a gentleman in evening dress, whose fierce moustache and goatee suggested fire-eating proclivities, marched down the right aisle of the Opera House parquet to a front seat, sat down and then, with a very fierce expression upon his face, strode up the aisle again into the foyer and out of the theatre.

A gentleman who saw this singular performance said to me: "That reminds me of an incident which took place in this very theatre about a dozen years ago. It was while Fanny Davenport was playing an engagement here. A young man, who was a clerk at the Union Depot Hotel, after a rather lively priming with the boys went to the Opera House. He was a good-looking fellow with a black moustache, and the figure he cut that night was given color by his new light overcoat and high silk hat. By the time he reached the theatre it was pretty full; so was he. But he bought a ticket for the parquet seat right down front and with tolerably steady steps he made his way to it. It was in the middle of a scene. What the play was I don't remember. As he reached his seat and was divesting himself of his loud overcoat Fanny Davenport came down the stage to the footlights and said to the villain who was courting her, but with her eyes to the audience: 'I can never love thee!'

"She said it with great emphasis, and the handsome hotel clerk rose from his seat, took up his hat and overcoat, and saying in a loud voice: 'Well, that settles it,' retraced his steps up the aisle, while the audience burst into a roar of laughter and applause."
